INJECTION MOULD TOOLMAKER IN IRELAND

EURES Agenzia Piemonte Lavoro is seeking experienced injection mould toolmakers to join the manufacturing team in Dromcollogher, Co. Limerick, Ireland. This is a hands-on role for people who can build, diagnose, repair and maintain injection mould tooling. It is not a production-operator position.
Legal employer: Abbey Moulding Contractors Ltd, trading as Total Plastic Solution (TPS).
Your work:

- Build, fit, assemble and prove injection mould tools and mould components.
- Diagnose moulding faults and complete planned maintenance, breakdown repairs and modifications.
- Use CNC milling equipment to manufacture precision mould components and copper or graphite electrodes for sinker EDM.
- Use wire EDM and sinker/spark EDM equipment to manufacture and repair precision components.
- Carry out manual milling, turning, grinding, fitting, polishing and accurate bench work as required.
- Read mould drawings, inspect your own work and work independently to the required dimensions and finish.

Essential experience

- Proven practical experience in injection mould construction and mould repair.
- Hands-on CNC milling experience, including the manufacture and inspection of copper or graphite EDM electrodes.
- Hands-on wire EDM and sinker/spark EDM experience. TPS operates ONA equipment; equivalent-machine experience is acceptable.
- Strong toolroom fitting, machining, measuring and fault-finding ability.
- Working English sufficient for safety, technical instructions and team communication.

Major advantages

- Laser-welding experience for mould repair and restoration.
- Experience with Fanuc controls, Cincinnati CNC machinery, hot runners, hydraulic cores or complex mould tooling.

PLACE OF WORK: Limerick, Ireland
WORKING CONDITIONS:

- 40 paid hours per week. Mainly daytime, with occasional 16:00–00:00 evening work.
- Earliest start by agreement, subject to notice and work permission; portal start date is indicative.
- Starting annual salary: €42,000.

- TPS can arrange accommodation for as long as reasonably required. The employee pays the agreed rent and normal living costs; full terms are confirmed in writing before relocation.
- Direct employment with TPS — no recruitment agency and no candidate recruitment fee.
- Employment-permit support where the candidate and role are legally eligible. No permit outcome can be guaranteed.
